

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Domestic Violence Advocate

The Advocacy Center of Tompkins County seeks a compassionate and confident individual to provide support, advocacy and case management services to survivors of domestic violence and their children. For those survivors who choose to utilize the legal system, the Domestic Violence Advocate may help them file for Orders of Protection and accompany them to meetings with law enforcement and prosecutors, as well as to any necessary court proceedings. The person in this position will attend bi-monthly multidisciplinary team case meetings working collaboratively with community partners and regularly attends the Tompkins County Integrated Domestic Violence Court with and on behalf of domestic violence survivors. Services are provided individually and through support groups. This position will also share in a paid rotation of after-hours (weeknight, weekend, and holiday) on-call shifts with other advocates to ensure coverage of the 24 hour hotline, accompaniment to medical or legal services, and emergency sheltering.

The ideal person for this job will find reward in helping victims of domestic violence and their children as they seek a life free from violence. They will understand the complexities and challenges of domestic violence as they provide trauma informed services. They will be able to respond calmly to crisis situations and will be able to navigate complicated situations. They will be comfortable working independently as well as collaboratively.

Position: Full Time, 35 hours weekly

Salary: $16.51/hr with $.50 hourly increase after 6 month provisional employment period is successfully completed. After hours pay (average of 4-5 shifts monthly) provides an additional average $2,500 annually.
